HEADMASTER

TO THE CLASS OF 1974:

During our four years together we have gone through an evolution beginning with social upheaval and political unrest to the present mood of apathy, passiveness and societal moral decadence.

1973-1974 is marked by the emergence of a search for personal identity, a return to more traditional and even conservative patterns. Our primary educational concern had emphasized process and now we have turned our attention to content. There is revised concern for guidelines, codes, ethics, morality and values designed to fill the vacuum which coincides with the decline of institutions — the schools, formal religious structures and political organisms.

Our time of faddism, turmoil and national agony led us to hysteria and crisis. We have flagellated ourselves individually and castigated ourselves nationally. It is time to go forward. There are strong latter-day signals — auspicious signals marked by HOPE.

Now, go! With hope, trust and yea! even faith! Our civilization has not declined as a prelude to fall. Rather, the decline presages the rise of a new man of the 21st Century. You are it! Make way confidently and gladly, for all our sakes.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

First Row: (Seated) Ann E. MacDonald-Assistant Superintendent, Viola R. Pinanski, John Connerton, Alette E. Reed, Robert I. Sperber-Superintendent. Second Row: (Standing) Helen V. O'Brien-Secretary, Joseph Robinson, Ann M. Wacker, Jacques M. Dronsick, Ellsworth E. Rosen, Brian L. Conry. Absent: Raymond McNally.

Although few Brookline High students have personal contact with members of the School Committee, we are all directly affected by the decisions of this body. Last year however, in accordance with Chapter 95, Acts of 1972, the Student Advisory Board was formed. Five students are elected to represent the Brookline High School community in all matters before the School Committee. The two bodies meet periodically during the school year, and the students retain their posts for one year. Now at last, the students have some say in matters concerning the high school.

SOCCER — For the first time in B.H.S. history, the Varsity Soccer Team entered the State tournament. Under the leadership of tri-captains Kevin McNeil, Marc Hetnick, Victor Felszegi, and Coach Conroy they finished the Suburban League season in third place with a spectacular league record of 9-4-3.

Outstanding players such as Peleg Gal, Dan Riley, Henry Mosquera and Ricky Schwartz helped win their way into the playoffs. With two exciting goals in the last four minutes, Brookline won their first playoff game against Andover. Brookline's season ended after losing a close game against Newton 1-0. Their success is attributed to high spirits and team co-operation. Mr. Conroy is optimistic that next year will be as rewarding as this one was.

Climaxing one of the most frustrating seasons in the years of the B.H.S. football team, the Red and Blue bowed to the highly favored Newton contingent, 33-6 on Thanksgiving Day. Previously the team had lost seven games, tied one and won one, their one victory over Boston Tech.

Considering the rebuilding job of filling 23 slots vacated by last years seniors, however, coaches Schluntz, Barendino and Fleming along with trainer Mr. Devio did a commendable job in coordinating a team which showed impressive spirit and hustle throughout the season.

Constituting the list of graduating seniors are: Co-Captains Jim Hamelberg and Glenn Carle, Richie Buckley, Sean O'Brien, Steve Whitman, Ed Vien, Tom Small, Jack Lally, Phil Robertson, Jim Perry, Peter Sweeny, Steve Rourke, Joe May, Lawton Cooper and Mike McGourty.

With almost all the lettermen returning, next year's squad should have a winning season and should allow coaches Schluntz and Fleming to breath easier.

The Varsity Field Hockey team ended a disappointing season with a record of 1-4-5, their only win being against Cambridge. The team suffered in losing Captian Peggy Sheehan due to injuries early in the season, also in lack of experience as only 5 players had previously played on the Varsity Team.

The J.V. Field Hockey team finished their season as suburban league champs. Under the leadership of Captain Ellen McCarthy (goalie) and star players such as Cheryl Fay, Cindy O'Brien and Sally Steverman. The team was undefeated with a record of 6-0-4. Unfortunatly they were unable to compete in a tournament as J.V. teams do not get proper recognition, however since Newton lost Brookline claimed the title of the suburban league. Next year has prosperous outlooks for another great season as this year's team consisted of mostly freshmen.

Top to bottom: Jodie Miller, Sue Maze, Nancy Zizza, Marti Gaetz, Angela Torres, Anne Harrington, Heather Maxon, Anne Fine, Bertina Flessas, Haven Gracey, Natasha Walter, Liz Von Huene, Liz Glick, Darcia Zdanovich, Cathy Rizika, Cheryl VonLoozonoord, Tracy Milton, Cindy Clifford, Gail Caufield, Linda Lovering, Mrs. Crane, Coach.

The Girls' Swim team ended a very good season this year with a 6-3 record overall and a 5-2 record in the league. Mrs. Crane, coach of the team, had some great talent to work with this year. Captain Jodi Miller was rated as one of the top 12 backstrokers in the state, while Heather Maxon was rated as one of the top 12 in diving. With promising freshmen such as Cindy Clifford, Liz von Heune, and Gail Caulfield, the team is looking forward to an even better season next year. Departing seniors include Marti Gaetz, Sue Maze, Jodi Miller and Nancy Zizza.

BASKETBALL

The Varsity basketball team finished an outstanding season with a 13-7 record and qualified for the state tournament. "The Great White Machine" was a strong and penetrating club lead by Coach Slaven and Captain Kevin O'Boy, who helped create a good team attitude throughout the year. In the beginning of the season, the team suffered a few injuries, the flu took its toll, and Mark Young tore ligaments in his right ankle, but the team pulled through to finish second in the Suburban League.

After losing 57-55 to Brockton, in one of the most exciting games of the season, extending into double-overtime, the team won its last two games against Peabody and North Quincy. Brookline had a disappointing loss in the first round of the play-offs against New Bedford, 83-67.

Many seniors will be leaving this year; starters: Joe Moscaritolo, Kevin O'Boy and Peter Kulka. Also leaving are Kevin Barboza, Bobby Meisterman, George Barney, Neal Piltch, Phil Robertson and Steve Wright.

We congratulate junior Mark Young and senior Kevin O'Boy who were both chosen as All-Scholastic players. Coach Slaven said that the team had a superb season. Next year promises to be as exciting as this year, with returning players, Mark Young, Tony Lee, Larry Deraney and Percy Cook, who, have already exhibited fine talent and enthusiasm.

Mark Young.....SUBURBAN LEAGUE ALL-STAR

KEVIN O'BOY--Captain. Average: 18.2. Suburban League All-Star. Coach's Comment: "An outstanding team leader with great college potential. Always 'on fire' as a player. I have to rank him as one of the top five guards in my twelve years at Brookline."

PETER KULKA--Average: 7.0. Coach's Comment: "A fine defensive player--had an outstanding game against league leader Arlington to put us in the League Championships against Brockton."

JOEY MOSCARITOLO--Average: 10.1. Coach's Comment: "A big surprise as a Varsity starter. Outstanding outside shooter; helped tremendously in the early season."

BOB MEISTERMAN--Average: 2.4. Coach's Comment: "Probably one of the best 'sixth men' in the game. Always ready to fill in at any position. He had a great attitude."

KEVIN BARBOZA--Average: 3.5. Coach's Comment: "Always first man off the bench when we needed rebounds. Played an outstanding Brockton game."

The B.H.S. Varsity hockey team finished a superb season with a record of 11-3-2 regular season play, putting them in second place in the Suburban League and qualifying them to enter the States Tournament.

Brookline made it through the state tournament by showing great team effort in their last three games, the first a shutout for Brookline against Weymouth North 1-0, and the last two against Arlington which was split between the two teams. Their victory against Arlington was the highlight of the season. After Marc Hetnik and Kenny Bauer's goals, Steven Rourke scored the tie breaker from the blue line in the third period winning the game for Brookline 3-2. Marc Hetnik and Sean O'Brien received M.V.P. award for their outstanding performance during the game.

Despite their loss to Boston Latin in the State Tournament, the team performed better than had been expected. Their success can be attributed to Coach Ron DiVincenzo and co-captains Glenn Carle and Steven Rourke. Steven, along with seniors Dan Riley, Kevin MacNeil, and Sean O'Brien were the defensive backbone of the team.

Two outstanding offensive players were high scorers Marc Hetnik and junior Kenny Bauer, along with Brian Doherty and Jim McCuen.

The team will have a good start next year with returning lettermen Chuck Heintz, Joe McNeilly, Ben Steverman and sophomores Paul Piatelli, Frank Nelson, and Tony Page who were an essential part of the team this year.

A hearty congratulations to Glenn Carle and Marc Hetnik for being chosen for the All Star Team.

Girl's Basketball

The girls' basketball team finished their season with a 4-10-0 record. They had a little trouble getting started, but with the help of Coach Petrulavage and Captain Erika Tarlin they improved greatly over the second half of the season. The team had the third best defense in the league and with high scorers Erika Tarlin and Louise Bryan with 88 points each, the girls played very competitive games.

The 1973 Girls' Gymnastics Team had an excellent record of 6 wins and 2 losses and ranked eleventh in the state. The team suffered many injuries this year. Captain Marti Gaetz was out most of the season and star gymnast Cathy Spillane missed qualifying for the state tournament by one score in each event due to an injury. Heather Maxon qualified for the state tournament on the uneven bars. Donna Maginnis and Eva O'Malley both did a consistently good job in their respective events. The team feels optimistic about next year's season and have already noted a few good prospects. Departing seniors include captain Marti Gaetz, Sue Sager, Donna Maginnis, and Karen Knowles.

Gymnastics

The Boys' Gymnastics Team ended a good season with a 4-3 record and finished third in the league placing less than 1 point behind the second place team. The team led by Co-Captains Paul Bauer and Andrei Slezak showed great enthusiasm throughout the season.

Andrei Slezak placed first on the parallel bars with a score of 6.4. Junior Steve Gosdanian placed second on the parallel bars and had the honor of being the best all around gymnast in the league.

Coach Devio commented "We have many letter winners returning next year and we should certainly be stronger than this year even though we are losing a few good seniors."

Harry Conforti--Sectional Champ

This year's wrestling team, headed by coach Jerry Hall, had a frustrating season with a league record of 1-9-1. The best team effort all year was shown in a close, but disappointing match against Newton North. Sean Griffin and Dyke Hoy achieved their first wins. Among the best wrestlers were: Steven Whitman, who is a senior and was wrestling for the first time; Jimmy Griffin, a returning letterman who will play an important part in next year's team; Ed Roberts, a sophomore with two strong years ahead of him, and captains Harry Conforti and Kevin Griffin, who both deserve recognition for their superb wrestling.

"Harry and Kevin showed fine team leadership and personal dedication throughout the season. A special thanks to both of them," commented Coach Jerry Hall.

Although their league record wasn't very impressive, they placed 8th. Harry and Kevin both placed 1st in their respective weights, and Ed Roberts placed 4th in his weight.

In the State Tournament, Brookline placed 11th out of 100 teams, with only 2 teams from their section scoring higher than them. Harry placed 2nd at a weight of 121. Kevin placed 3rd at a weight of 140, and Ed placed 8th at a weight of 134.

At Brockton's Tournaments, Kevin placed 1st at 140 pounds and received the outstanding wrestler award for the tournament.

Harry Conforti did an outstanding job placing 3rd at a weight of 121 pounds in the New England Tournament.

Kevin Griffin--Sectional Champ

WINTER TRACK

The Varsity Track team ended a discouraging season with a record of 1-5. Solid performances by everyone has made each contest close, losing for example, by only one point to Cambridge Latin and by two points to Newton.

Along with clutch Co-Captains Tom Small and Rob Turesky, the squad boasts many other winning athletes including Larry Friedman--50 yard dash, Mark Schwartz--600 yrd. dash, Richard Thompson--1000 yd. run, Tad Fox--2 mile run, Steve Finkel--shot put, Rob Turesky--300 yd. dash and Matty Sawyer--high jump, all of them winning these events in their win against Arlington. It should also be mentioned that Gary Pagar is the 3rd best miler in the league. This talented team expects a winning record next year.

TROUPE 2002 OF THE INTERNATIONAL THESPIAN SOCIETY

In March, Brookline High entered the yearly Festival Competition with the futuristic play, The Veldt, by Ray Bradbury. The play, which takes place before the end of this century, depicts a frightening technological world, devoid of human relationships and communication.

Wendy Jacobs and Allen Merritt played the parents of Rose Robinson and Michael Clebnik. Kathee Ham was the psychiatrist who warned the parents of impending disaster, and Marcy Clebnik played the part of the electrician. Although we didn't win in the competition, the play was excellent. Special congratulations go to Kathee Ham, who was chosen as a member of the Regional All-Star cast.

Brookline High School houses Thespian Troupe 2002. To become a Thespian, one must work on Dramatics Society productions, thereby earning points. Once 15 points have been earned the hard worker is inducted into the Troupe. This year's Thespian production was "The Veldt" by Ray Bradbury.

As for the Dramatics Society in general, besides two student-teacher directed one act plays, the winter presentation of "Blithe Spirit" by Sir Noel Coward, directed by Mr. Belliveau, Faculty Advisor, enjoyed moderate success.

Things Don't Change: We Change

Henry David Thoreau

In 1843, the idea of a school for higher education in Brookline (then only a small town, whose people were farmers) took shape, and classes were first held at the old town house that year.

Brookline High was destined to see many institutions, both good and bad, rise and flourish, totter and fall; to see all this and still remain and grow when they all had passed.

In 1914, Brookline spent $32,000 for a new high school building located at 115 Greenough St. When war and the Depression had both passed, Brookline High School still remained.

It was September 25, 1936. School had just closed for the day when the fire, caused by a faulty incinerator, started in the attic of the building. The fire grew in intensity as the flames spread out over the building. When the fire was finally extinguished, the building was damaged beyond repair. The only things that were saved from the fire were some important records. However, when the building and the grounds around the then destroyed school were inspected, two other things were found in the rubble to have survived the fire--the two statues of the Greek gods Athena and Diana that stood in the courtyard. When the new building was completed, the statues were placed in the quadrangle and have remained there since.

The Margaret Metzger Fan Club

On September 23, 1973, tragedy struck Brookline High; the rope on the flag pole in front of the school broke, making it impossible to raise Old Glory.

But on January 22, Frank W. Price, steeplejack extraordinaire came to the rescue. Mr. Price mounted the one hundred foot flagpole and tied a new rope on it.

This reporter, who was one of several hundred witnesses to Mr. Price's ascent, sought to discover how one enters the field of steeplejacking. When asked how he had become a steeplejack, he replied that there had been a line of progression, starting with "trees, then water towers, then radio towers, then church steeples, and finally flag poles." No one in his family had been steeplejacks.

Steeplejacks don't charge by the hour, but rather by the height of the object climbed. He charges "$1.25 per foot to climb up for a job like this and $1.75 to paint." He also said that he had put one-half inch rope onto the BHS flagpole and had only charged for three-eighths inch.

If you're interested in his services, you are advised to contact Mr. Price at Steeplejack Inc. in Abington.

An alphabet for B.H.S. Students

The alphabet is something you already know (at least, we hope you know it and would be pretty surprised if you didn't), so the following alphabet should not be considered as a learning device. Rather, it is a way of looking at Brookline High.

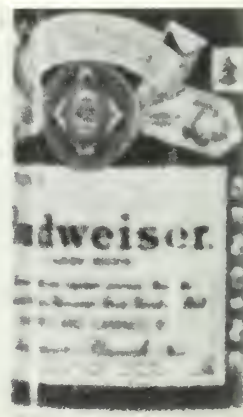

During this past year at B.H.S., there was good, bad, and blah. Some days the goodies won--going home for vacation days and X-Block days; and some days the baddies won--losing tournament days and walking-to-school-in-rain-or-snow-days. But there were many days that were simply blah, routine, ho-hum days. We opened doors, climbed stairs, shut windows, sat on chairs. We studied books, cut class, read signs, kept off the grass. Consequently, an Alphabet for B.H.S. Students shows the good, the bad, and the blah.

A is for auditorium.

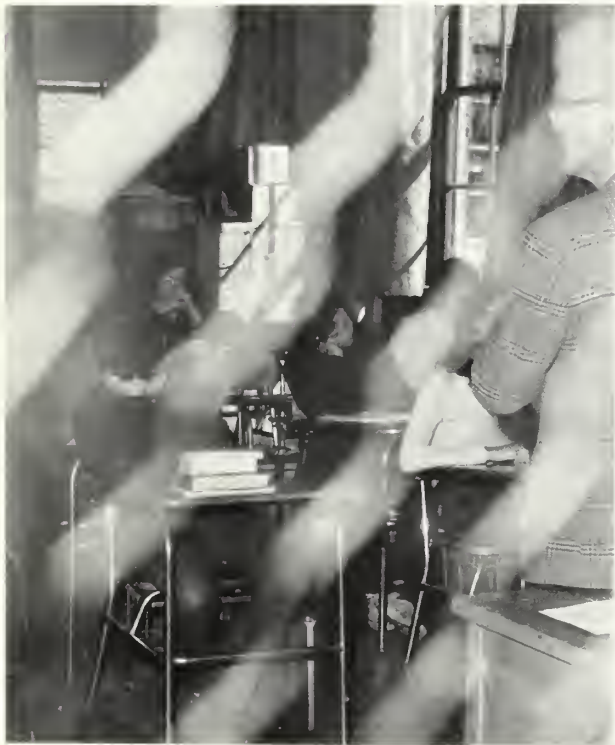

B is for books,
and beer.

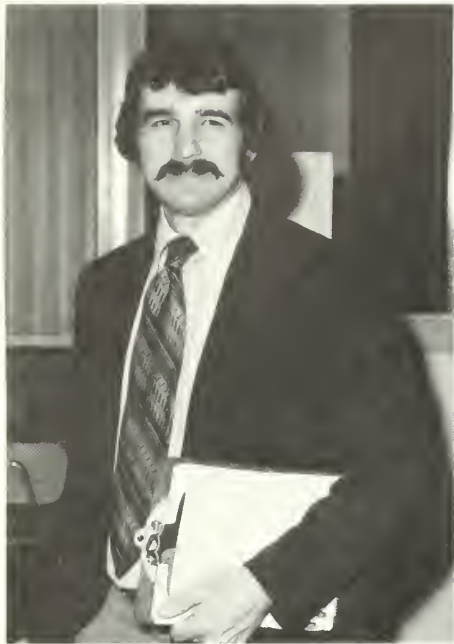

C is for class,
and cutting class.

D is for doors.

E is for educators.

F is for fatigue,
and The Fence.

G is for greasers.

H is for happy.

J is for jocks.

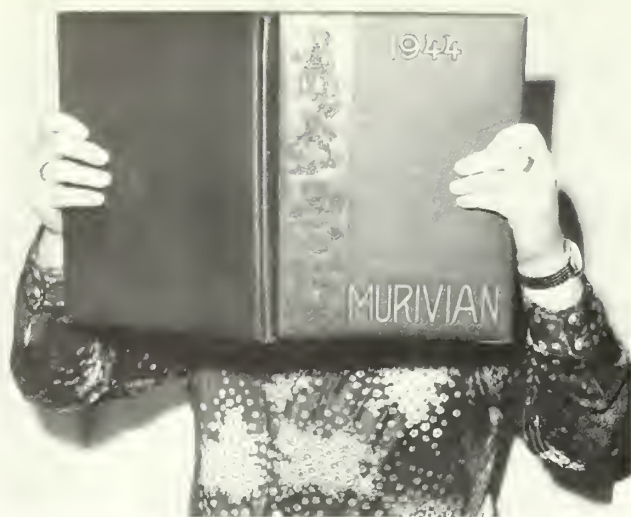

K

is for library,
and lockers.

M is for Murivian.

N is for nurse's office.

O is for oldies.

P is for play,

and play.

Q is for quiet.

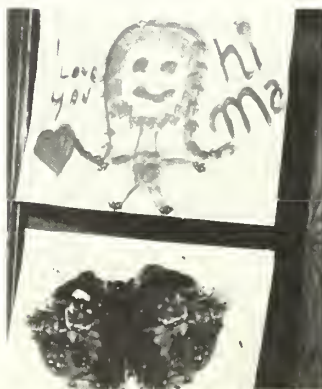

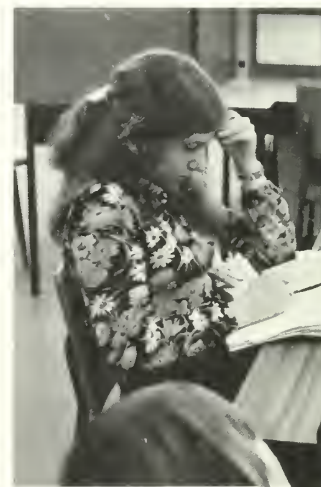

R is for running.

S is for signs,

You're about to take a giant step forward into your future. We think we can make it the bright one you want it to be at New England Telephone. With a job that's every bit as big as your ambition. You see, we need people with all kinds of talents. And especially, people who really want to get going with their future. And want to be rewarded with automatic raises. If you want a job and a future that's tailored to your talent... along with unusually generous fringe benefits, stop in and see your guidance counselor. Ask when and where you can apply for an interview with the people who want to make your future as happy as you want it to be.

New England Telephone an equal opportunity employer

But we cannot end with goodbye. We also want to say--happily and often--hello. And between the goodbye of the moment and the hellos of the future, we wish you--above all--peace. So we say, "Shalom" . . .
